Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God; to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized by immersion. Looking to Jesus as the author of our salvation, we do now, in the presence of God; and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully, enters into a covenant with one another as brothers and sisters in Christ.

We agree to build our belief and teachings on the infallibility of the Bible, recognizing that God's Word is far more important than the traditions of men. The Bible will be our ultimate authority and the foundation of all we do.

We agree to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to be honest in the sight of all men.

We agree to encourage church attendance. We believe that by joyous praise and deep reverent worship, the presence of God may be enjoyed. We further agree, a servant spirit is the ministry of not only the leadership, but of all who make up the fellowship. The position of loving, caring, service to God and to others is emphasized. We believe deeply that we must show love, acceptance and forgiveness to others; as God has shown these things to us. We seek to minister to all people without prejudice or preference; as taught by our Lord Jesus Christ.

We further agree to remember one another in prayer, aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian courtesy in speech. To be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation; always being mindful of the Spirit of the covenant and the principles of God's Word.
